Event Draws Hundreds of Job Hunters and more than 60 businesses to Brookhaven Town Hall

Farmingville, NY - On June 25, over 600 residents attended the fourth annual JobHaven.org Job Fair held at Brookhaven Town Hall. The free event, which was sponsored by the Division of Economic Development and the Brookhaven Business Advisory Council (BBAC), gave job hunters the opportunity to meet face-to-face with representatives from 55 companies in and around Brookhaven who are looking to hire qualified candidates for a wide range of positions. Pictured left to right are BBAC Board member Salvatore Incardona, BBAC Vice President Brian Cohen, BBAC Board Members Mireya Lombardo, Reeni Brill and Maria Frey, Supervisor Ed Romaine, Councilwoman Valerie M. Cartright, Brookhaven Town Division of Economic Development Director and CEO of the Brookhaven Industrial Development Agency (IDA) Lisa Mulligan and Brookhaven Town IDA Deputy Director James Tullo.

Supervisor Ed Romaine said, "The BBAC's Job Fair is a great event for people to find good paying job opportunities in the public and private sector. I commend the BBAC for helping residents to network and meet with company representatives who are actively recruiting candidates for employment."

The companies and institutions that participated in the JobHaven.org Job Fair included Aflac, Amneal Pharmaceuticals, DiCarlo Distributors, New York Life Insurance, Brookhaven Memorial Hospital Medical Center, People's United Bank, Sam's Club and more.

About the BBAC

The BBAC serves as the business liaison to the Supervisor and Town Board. The council is comprised of business owners and professionals who serve on a volunteer basis. The Council's key function is to assist Town government by disseminating information to and from the business communities. They also help to compile information on business in Brookhaven Town, and develop and implement public information programs to educate the business community regarding outreach programs and assistance available to them. For more information about the BBAC, visit www.brookhavenbac.com or call Lisa Mulligan, Director of the Town of Brookhaven's Division of Economic Development at (631) 451-6563.
